Chapter 1 by Hannah

The end, Game over, goodbye, siranada I wish this would just end. Nothing seemed real to me any more ever since I started playing. I can't stop. I live it every day and every night. Everyone who has started can never stop. This is not an everyday ordinary game. This was a prison. A prison in which will never be paused or ended. Unless you're murdered or die of course. Once you die in the game no one knows. You could die when you are out of it. This game was first made by AVG( (Awesome Video Game 9) "Once you start you can never stop." That slogan could have saved me a lot of pain and suffering, but no I thought it ment it was addicting. I was one of the first players. I paid $20.99 for all the weapons, coins, goods, and a house along with the game software. I wish I never heard of the game or the developers. Other people are saying there has been a lot of people going missing all throughout the world I just pray that one day I can see the sun again and my family....
